

Policy and Communications Associate

The AHTCC is seeking a Policy and Communications Associate to increase the capacity of our growing organization in support of our mission to advocate for the Housing Credit. The ideal candidate for this position will be a highly organized team player who is comfortable working in a fast-paced environment, with a passion for public policy, a commitment to our mission, and an eagerness to learn. The ideal candidate will also have demonstrated time management and verbal and written communication skills.

See the full position description and more information here.